Professional Glatt Kosher Tour of Europe

- Amazing “behind-the-scenes” tour of Europe;
- Beautiful hotels, sumptuous dinners, world famous tourist destinations and some of Europe's best Kosher vineyards and kitchens;
- Guided tours to small village markets to source local produce with renowned chef's;
- Expert knowledge and instruction on Kosher Wines with our Executive Sommelier, Jay Buchsbaum who will be travelling with us.

Jay Buchsbaum, Executive Sommelier:

For over a quarter of a century, Jay has been traversing the globe sourcing unique wines for the discerning Kosher wine connoisseur. Like all great sommeliers, Jay, has the innate ability to “pair” guests with their ideal wine.

Regarded as the foremost expert on Kosher Wine and renowned as an engaging and popular presenter, Jay's presentations have included:

- “proper pairings” to “perfect pouring”;
- the History of Wine in Jewish life; and
- how to become an “Expert Wine Taster” in one easy lesson.

Jay has a weekly radio slot on the “The Nachum Segal Show” where he reviews and discusses the world of Kosher wines. He has also been quoted by countless US and international newspapers and magazines on the subject of Kosher wines.

On the tour, you will have the exceptional opportunity to “tap into” Jay's incredible knowledge of this subject in order to gain a greater understanding of the “world of wine”. After this tour, you should be able to take this new found knowledge back to your own homes to impress your friends and family at your next dinner party.

ITINERARY

Day One - Sunday 9th August Paris, France. . . BONJOUR!!

Upon arrival in Paris you are welcomed by a Pure Tiyulim representative. Transfers to our hotel are made. Perhaps an opportunity to explore a little of the city in the afternoon at your leisure before we all meet for our welcome dinner this evening.

Day Two - Monday 10th August Highlights of Paris

We spend the day visiting the key sights of this beautiful, romantic city. Highlights of Paris include visiting the Eiffel Tower, the Arc de Triomphe, and a cruise down the river Seine. Our picnic by the Eiffel Tower sets the scene for an epicurean adventure and completes our morning before having the afternoon in Paris at your leisure.

Day Three - Tuesday 11th August Travel to Champagne Wine Region and Markets

This morning, over breakfast, we meet our local French chef tutor before boarding our coach bound for the famous "Champagne Wine Region". Our chef tutor travels with us and takes us to various small village markets en route. Each stop we make we gather ingredients for our afternoon cooking lesson. Dinner is created and served by our group and perfectly matched with local wines.

Day Four - Wednesday 12th August Vineyards in the region

Today we enjoy all that the Champagne Wine Region has to offer. We board our coach to visit the local vineyards meeting the winemakers and learning the techniques for making the perfect glass of Champagne. Laurent Perrier features on our tour with a picnic lunch served in a vineyard.

Day Five - Thursday 13th August Champagne to Asti

We board our coach this morning as we begin our drive from Champagne to Asti, Italy. While en route we make several stops at various local markets and meet with speciality food makers along the way. When we arrive in Asti, preparations have been made for our formal dinner with local wines courtesy of Bartenura Vineyard.

Day Six - Friday 14th August Asti to Rome - Preparations for Shabbat

Our early start this morning puts us on the road bound for Rome! Our route gives us an inside look into Italian Coffee before arriving in Rome and making preparations for Shabbat. Our hotel is centrally located close to The Great Synagogue of Rome and the historic sights of the surrounding area.

Day Seven - Saturday 15th August Shabbat – The Great Synagogue of Rome

This morning, having had the opportunity to go to The Great Synagogue of Rome with a special Kiddush, you can partake in an optional walking tour of Rome's historic sites, including the Arch of Titus and the Colosseum. We have planned a late dinner at a local restaurant with an opportunity to sample some amazing fresh-made pasta.

Day Eight - Sunday 16th August Transfer to the airport

Breakfast will be served in the morning before transfers to the airport for your return flight home.
